

Emily Goh Appointed As Director To Two Boards

As of September 2010, Emily Goh has been appointed as a Director to the boards of Hongwei Technologies and Artivision. Emily Goh is currently Director of Tembusu Partners and Executive Director of Blue Ocean Capital. She has more than 10 years of field experience with regional start up and growth companies in service sectors such as foreign exchange, education and has actively engaged in business advisory activities covering strategic alliances, cross border M&A and fund raising.