

Loo Cheng Guan steps down as Managing Director of Tembusu Partners

Tembusu Partners would like to announce that as of 31st March 2010, Loo Cheng Guan has stepped down as Managing Director. He has also left the investment committee as of 31st May 2010 and has since moved on to his new appointment as Independent Director of MAP Technology Holdings. We would like to wish him the very best in his future endeavors.