

Emily Goh Appointed to the Board of Directors of Ying Tai Bio-Technology

As of January 2011, Emily Goh has been appointed to the Ying Tai Bio-Technology Board of Directors. Emily Goh is currently the Director of Tembusu Partners. She has more than 12 years of field experience with regional start up and growth companies in service sectors such as foreign exchange, education and has actively engaged in business advisory activities covering strategic alliances, cross border M&A and fund raising.